Subject: Recommendation for Sarah Hunter

To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing to enthusiastically recommend Sarah Hunter for a position that requires a dedicated, hardworking, and detail-oriented individual. I have had the pleasure of working with Sarah during her internship, and I have been consistently impressed by their exceptional work ethic and commitment to their tasks.

Sarah will be a true asset to any team. She consistently exceeded expectations, demonstrating a strong work ethic and a keen eye for detail. Her ability to efficiently manage multiple tasks and prioritize deadlines is commendable. As I am sure she will work well in a structured environment, she is most certainly a self-starter. We found out quickly that we merely had to set the goal, provide periodic feedback and she would accomplish the task.

I have no doubt that Sarah will be a valuable addition to your team. Her dedication, skills, and positive attitude make her an ideal candidate for any role. I wholeheartedly recommend them for your consideration.

If she was willing to come back to the area, we would hire her without a second thought.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you require any further information.

Sincerely,

Rob Lanham
